

Collective Hindu Advocacy, Networking, Action, and Knowledge for Youth in America

What we stand for

- Defending Hindu dharma, culture, and symbols from denigration.
- Advocating for human rights and religious freedom from a Hindu perspective.
- Training youth to participate in public service, community organizations, and civic leadership.

Why Join

- HinduPACT is committed to developing the next generation of American Hindu leaders. Our internships and volunteer opportunities give students the tools to:
- Gain hands-on experience in media, policy research, and community outreach.
- Build practical skills in journalism, social media, public relations, and advocacy.
- Work directly with HinduPACT's leadership team and influential community leaders.
- Contribute to a positive, accurate portrayal of Hindu dharma in American public life.
- Strengthen your resume and professional network with meaningful work experience.

Internship Tracks

- Advocacy → work on Federal and State legislation, interact with lawmakers.
- Human Rights → convert your passion into meaningful action.
- Media & Journalism → Produce HinduLounge weekly show, manage production & marketing.
- Media Monitor → Track & analyze Hinduphobic content, publish research articles.
- Research Fellows → Work with the policy team to publish dharma-based research.
- Social Media Coordinators → Create viral campaigns, grow HinduPACT's digital presence.
- Media Coordinators → Write press releases, op-eds, and create broadcast content.
- Community Outreach → Build activist networks, engage with local/regional Hindu groups.
- AI Initiatives → Great opportunity to put your technocal skills to protect dharma

How to Apply

- ➡ Visit hindupact.org/chanakya
- ➡ Contact: info@hindupact.org
- ➡ Open to high school & college students (all majors welcome).

